Fadeel Shuhaiber
Plaintiff - Appellant vs

State of Illinois, et al.
Defendant - Appellee

Case # 1:17-CV-8438

Judge: Edmond E. Chang

Appeal: 18-1447

Motion For Judgement

As response from Appellate court on my change of Address Notification in Aug 2018, the Appellate court stated they received my brief and waiting for defendant's response on my brief which already passed Due date set by appellate court.

- Defendants or defendants attorney didn't file any motion for extension of time or any other motions or responses in appellate court and I didn't receive anything from appellate court regarding this case other than the notification on Aug 2018 that court awaiting defendant's response.

- This is a constitutional violation, due process rights where I am entitled to response of my brief and this is an evidence on defendant's bad faith.

- Appellate court received a motion of judgement sent Oct 18, 2018 by me notifying the court that defendants passed due date to respond to my brief Med July 2018
- Appellate Court informed that a summary judgement against defendants is advised and appellate court is entitled to honor my Relief set on my original complaint and on my brief
- Monetary Relief Requested
- Injunctive Relief Requested
- Damages (Psychological and emotional)
- Proper actions against defendants sued in their official capacity
